

Name: _____ Date: _____

Period: _____

As you watch the video How to Grow Carnivorous Plants Inside? fill out these guided notes. The questions are in order. Hint: read these statements before you watch the video, to better understand what to look and listen for.

1. What are two problems of growing carnivorous plants indoors? _____

2. How should you grow Drosera capensis and Drosera spatulata indoors?

3. If you have a water test, the mineral content should be _____ parts per million or less.

4. Carnivorous plants get their energy from the _____. Insects are their _____.

5. Indoor sundews eat tiny flying insects like _____ and _____ as well as sugar ants.

6. Many Mexican Pinguicula are also good candidates for windowsills.

7. Visit our website (<https://www.carnivorousplants.org/grow/guides/MexicanPinguicula>) for a thorough growing guide as some change their needs based on the season. What conditions change based on the season?

8. Lowland Nepenthes are found closer to sea level and have a range of _____.

9. What is an example of a Lowland Nepenthes? _____

10. Highland Nepenthes are found at higher elevations and have a range of _____.

11. What is an example of a highland Nepenthes? _____

12. Intermediate Nepenthes, whether naturally occurring or man-made are more _____ in their growing habits.

13. How do you grow Nepenthes indoors?

14. Visit our website to read an article on LED Plant Lighting (<https://www.carnivorousplants.org/grow/SoilsWaterLight/LEDplantlighting>). What are four (4) things that you learned

